Isaiah 52:13-53:12

He himself was wounded for our sins. (Fourth oracle of the Servant of the Lord).

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 31: Into Your Hands

Fa - ther, in - to your hands I com - mend my spir - it, in - to your

Psalm 31:2, 6, 12-13, 15-16, 17, 25

In you, O LORD, I take refuge.
Let me never be put to shame.
In your justice, set me free.
Into your hands I commend my spirit.
You will redeem me, O LORD,
O faithful God. R/.

Because of all my foes
I have become a reproach,
an object of scorn to my neighbors
and of fear to my friends.
Those who see me in the street
flee from me.
I am forgotten, like someone dead,

And have become like a broken vessel. R/.

But as for me, I trust in you, O LORD;
I say, "You are my God.
My lot is in your hands, deliver me
from the hands of my enemies and those who pursue me. R/.

"Let your face shine on your servant.
Save me in your merciful love."
Be strong, let your heart take courage, all who hope in the LORD. R/.

SECOND READING

GOSPEL READING

John 18:1 – 19:42

The Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel Reading is sung using a setting by Reverend Columba Kelly, O.S.B. of Saint Meinrad Archabbey, Saint Meinrad, IN. According to ancient custom, the Passion is chanted by cantors assuming the roles of the narrator, Jesus and other figures in the story. This proclamation is sung to the original Gregorian chant melodies, each characterization having its own melodic motif. The Passion is known to have been sung in this manner beginning about the fourth century.

Due to the longer duration, those who need to may be seated.

[Choral Anthem] Faithful Cross

Leo Nestor (1948-2019)

Faithful cross! Tree of solitary splendor! Never before has forest yielded such a tribute: in blossom, in fruit, in branches. Sweet the nails! Sweet the wood! Here then, where all life commences, commences with a weight of such sweetness: its bark bears the sweetest burden. [Verantius Fortunatus, 530-609]

Taizé

Sung twice. Music printed at beginning of Music during Adoration of the Holy Cross.

Tree of Life and Glory

O'Brien

First time: sung by cantor and then by all.

Refrain:

Tree of life and glo-ry, tree that heals and saves, tree that tells the an-cient sto - ry: dy - ing, ris - ing from the grave.

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below the notes. The first staff contains the first line of the refrain, and the second staff contains the second line. The music ends with a double bar line.

Verses:

1. The royal banners forward go, the cross shines forth in mystic glow where he, by whom our flesh was made, in that same flesh our ransom paid.
2. Where deep for us the spear was dyed, life's torrent rushing from his side, to wash us in the precious flood where flowed the water and the blood.
3. Fulfilled is all that David told in true prophetic song of old, that he the nation's king should be and reign in triumph from the tree.
4. O tree of beauty, tree most fair, ordained those holy libs to bear; gone is your shame, each crimsoned bough proclaims the King of glory now.
5. Blest tree, whose chosen branches bore the wealth that did the world restore, the price of humankind to pay and spoil the spoiler of his prey.
6. O cross, our one reliance hail! Still may your pow'r with us avail more good for righteous souls to win; and save the sinner from the sin.
